

INVITATION

Owl Publishing takes great pleasure in inviting you to the launch of its latest publication

ANTIGONE KEFALA: A WRITER'S JOURNEY

Co-edited and with an introduction by Vrasidas Karalis
(Professor of Greek, University of Sydney)
and Helen Nickas (former academic, editor and publisher)

The distinguished Australian poet Judith Rodriguez will launch the book.

Date: Tuesday, 27 May, 6.30pm

Venue: Steps Gallery, 62 Lygon Street, Carlton

Refreshments will be served.
All welcome

RSVP and enquiries:
Telephone Helen on 9596 6064
Email: owlbooks@bigpond.com

About the book

The book is a critical look at the life and works of Antigone Kefala, a poet and prose writer who came to the Antipodes in the early fifties and since 1960 calls Australia home. It comprises a selection of interviews, reviews and essays, giving a fascinating insight into this writer – originally a Greek from Romania. The book aims to stimulate a wide-ranging dialogue on the state of Australian literature and the place within it of writers like Antigone Kefala.

Antigone Kefala's books include Absence: new and selected poems; The Island; Alexia; Summer Visit: three novellas; Sydney Journals and several others. Four of her works are available in bilingual editions.

Owl Publishing thanks the Greek-Australian Cultural League for offering the venue for the launch. Their annual exhibition of Greek-Australian artists titled "Antipodean Palette" will be on show during the launch.